NEW! Watchman Report Forget Not the Watchman's Warnings!

Jeremiah the prophet lived in the final days of his crumbling nation. Like many watchmen ministries today, he repeatedly warned God's people to stop their idolatrous behavior, but they would not listen. They had become so hardened by the numbing effects of sin that they no longer believed God, nor did they fear Him. Jeremiah preached for 40 years and not once did he see any real success in changing or softening the hearts and minds of God's stubborn, idolatrous people before judgment finally came. Like the people in Jeremiah's day many of God's people have heard but have taken lightly the prophetic watchmen's warnings for today. In this Report, Karen reminds us from past reports what the watchmen have warned us of, much of which is now happening and is about to occur! Do you have ears to hear the WATCHMAN'S WARNINGS?

Very few Christians seem to understand the importance of having a Biblical knowledge of the workings Satan's "wiles" and because of this he has been able to use his wiles to confuse and thus deceive a great many foolish Christians. Many cults have invaded Christianity in very subtle ways, and have managed to change and challenge the very foundation of Christianity in ways that most Christians are not even aware of. Those who expose these kinds of occult secrets are truly on the front lines of the battle against evil, and many times it has cost them their jobs, friends, families, and even lives, because Satan does not like his plans and puppets exposed. Following is this heartbreaking excerpt from an email I recently received from a very dear and sincere fellow frontline warrior...

"...a guy... who... (i.e. is active in this person's ministry)... has been... getting .... names .... phone numbers and emails of people (i.e. involved in this person's ministry). He started texting (anonymously) all these people ... and writing horrible things about me. I mean talking about the sins of my youth, (35 years ago) for which I am gratefully forgiven, called me a whore, fake, ... I'm in this for money ...and other words I won't write or even suggest. It went on an on. This is a guy who loves... (i.e. a mutual ministry they both are involved with) ....and calls them too, about me! I've asked him what I've done to hurt him. He never answers. Over the last couple years I had spent many nights on long calls trying to help him to forgive himself and others, and how to overcome the targeting. Karen, he has written so many things about me, it's like this guy is on a mission to destroy me! He is targeted (himself) and I have compassion for him but I pray the Holy Spirit will do some damage control... not for me (I get the test of this particular death to flesh) but for the sake of His name and helping people."

We need to keep true watchmen and their ministries covered in our prayers, they will be targeted more and more as the antichrist forces gain momentum, just as it is prophesied for these endtimes! I find far too many professing Christians these days who do not want to see, hear or speak of the evil wiles that the forces of antichrist are raising up against the world's population and especially against God's people.

(Dan 7:21) I beheld, and the same horn (i.e. antichrist's power) made war with the saints, and prevailed against them.

With the invasion of Illuminati member, Norman Vincent Peal, and his heretical "Power of Positive Thinking" message that eventually took the Word of Faith Movement by storm in the early 1960's ... and is now responsible for the many who are not willing to listen to, let alone investigate, the many (hidden) evils now facing the world and the body of Christ. Instead those in this place only have itching ears to hear "positive" (pleasant sounding) messages that their carnal nature defines as GOOD and anything negative sounding is defined as BAD. This has caused multitudes of Christians to deny and ignore the reality of the very NEGATIVE realities we are now facing and will continue to face in the future, for which these professing Christians are not at all prepared to endure (spiritually, physically or emotionally). What has been reported in this months Watchman Report needs to be shared with those who are still unaware of what lies ahead in the very NEAR FUTURE for the citizens of this nation, which is Biblically known as "MYSTERY BABYLON (for more on this subject I highly recommend the DVD... AMERICA IN BIBLE PROPHECY).

(Rev 18:2-5) Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird... For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies... And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues... For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

The future of our nation has been prophesied by God and those who are wise will be wise enough to seek God for knowledge regarding what the enemy has planned so they can be prepared and help those they love become prepared. May we heed the words of King Solomon who is considered to be the wisest man who every lived, when he stated:

(Prov 18:15; 22:3) The heart of the prudent acquires knowledge, And the ear of the wise seeks knowledge... A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself, But the simple pass on and are punished.

God will provide for his people, those who seek him and look to Him for the direction and instruction we need to hear in these troubled times. That is why people like those mentioned in this REPORT are SHARING what knowledge they have ACQUIRED—to help those of us who do want to see, hear and talk about the important, and yes, SCARY issues of our time.

Only those who are fools will refuse to see, hear and speak about what needs to be clearly understood in order to be able to survive what lies ahead in the days to come.

I have recently and truly felt an urgency from God to do this watchman report and just today, (Oct 4, 2018) at the time of finishing my writing of this report, the first.. in the history of this nation, what is now being termed a "NATIONWIDE PRESIDENTIAL ALERT" went out on our TV and cellphones as a national emergency test in co-operation with FEMA! Below is an article from USA TODAY on this test...

USA TODAY What just happened with my phone? FEMA tests 'presidential alerts' for the first time!

No need to panic? You aren't the only one who just received an alert from the president of the United States. On Wednesday at 2:18 p.m. ET, smartphones in the U.S. were buzzing with a test of a "presidential alert," managed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, to warn residents about national emergencies. (Like possibly soon coming martial law??)

The system was originally put in place under former President George W. Bush for radio and TV and then later updated during the tenure of former President Barack Obama to include cellphones. It wasn't until Wednesday that it got its first test. (Why now??)

"The test will assess the operational readiness of the infrastructure for distribution of a national message and determine whether improvements are needed," read a statement from FEMA ahead of the alert test.

The alert works similarly to a weather emergency or Amber alert, where a user will see a notification pop up on their smartphone, as well as a loud tone with vibration. The key difference is users don't have the option to disable presidential alerts. —end of article—

I Karen, and many others who are truly seeking God, know something big is looming on the horizon. We also know, our only hope is Jesus Christ, the only one who can deliver and save us in these endtimes! Therefore may we be evermore watchful in the days ahead!

(1 Thess 5:6, 8-9) "...therefore, let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober... But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for our helmet, the hope of salvation... For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation (i.e. safety) by our Lord Jesus Christ..."

How Many Seek God Over what the Watchmen Speak?

Like the people in Jeremiah's day, many of God's people have heard but have taken lightly the prophetic watchmen's warnings for today. Jeremiah the prophet lived in the final days of his crumbling nation. As with many watchmen ministries today, he repeatedly warned God's people to stop their idolatrous behavior, but they would not listen. They had become so hardened by the numbing effects of sin that they no longer believed God, nor did they fear Him. Jeremiah preached for 40 years and not once did he see any real success in changing or softening the hearts and minds of God's stubborn, idolatrous people before God's judgment finally came upon them.

No doubt Jeremiah, who was only about 17 when God called him, had great inner turmoil over the fate of his people, and he begged them to listen. He is known as "the weeping prophet," because he cried tears of sadness, not only because he knew what was about to happen but because, no matter how hard he tried, the people would not listen. Furthermore, he found no human comfort.

(Ps 27:9-14) Hide not your face far from me;...leave me not, neither forsake me... Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me... Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen my heart...

God had forbidden him to marry or have children (Jeremiah 16:2), and his friends had turned their backs on him. So, along with the burden of the knowledge of impending judgment, he also must have felt very lonely. God knew that this was the best course for Jeremiah, because He went on to tell him how horrible conditions would be.

The other prophets of Israel had witnessed some successes, at least for a little while, but not Jeremiah. He was speaking to a brick wall; however, his words were not wasted. They were pearls being cast before swine, in a sense, and they were convicting every person who heard them and refused to heed the warning.

Jeremiah tried to make the people understand their problem was a lack of belief, trust, and faith in God, along with an absence of fear that caused them to take Him for granted. It is easy to be lulled into a false sense of security, especially when the focus is not on God. The nation of Israel, just like many nations today, had stopped putting God first and had replaced Him with false gods, those that would not make them feel guilty or convict them of sin. God had delivered His people from bondage in Egypt, had performed miracles before them, and had even parted the waters of the sea for them. In spite of all these displays of God's power, they returned to the false practices they had learned in Egypt, even making vows to the false "queen of heaven," along with performing the other rites and rituals that were part of the Egyptian culture and religion. God finally turned them over to their idolatry, saying, "Go ahead, then; do what you promised! Keep your vows!" (Jeremiah 44:25).

Jeremiah became discouraged. He sank into a quagmire where many believers seem to get stuck when they think their efforts are not making a difference and time is diminishing.

Jeremiah was emotionally spent, even to the point of doubting God but God was not done with him. The Bible records a lesson for God's watchmen to remember in those times when he feels alone, useless, and discouraged and whose faith is wavering: (Jeremiah 15:19-21) Therefore thus says the Lord: "If you return, Then I will bring you back; You shall stand before Me; If you take out the precious from the vile, You shall be as My mouth. Let them return to you, But you must not return to them... And I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; And they will fight against you, But they shall not prevail against you; For I am with you to save you And deliver you," says the Lord... "I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked, And I will redeem you from the grip of the terrible." NKJV

Jeremiah was given the task of delivering an unpopular, convicting message to God's people, one that caused him great mental anguish, as well as making him despised in the eyes of his people. God says that His truth that He gives His servants to preach sounds like "foolishness" to those who are going to perish because they don't know God, but to true believers it is the very words of life: (1 Cor 1:17, 21) ...to them that perish it is foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God... to save them that believe.

Those in Judah in Jeremiah's day did not want to hear what he had to say, and his constant warning of judgment annoyed them. This is true of the world today, as believers who are following God's instructions are warning the lost and dying world and God's own people, of impending judgment...

(Rev 3:10-13) "Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth... Behold, I am coming quickly! Hold fast what you have, that no one may take your crown... He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God. And I will write on him My new name. "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says..."

Even though most are not listening, we who are God's Watchmen must persevere in proclaiming truth in whatever area God exposes error or enemy invasion in order to rescue some deception that will cause them to align themselves with antichrist wiles, which will lead to experiencing the many terrible judgments that will inevitably come upon this earth.

There are many hidden and dishonest things of darkness that are must be exposed so the truth can set people free from the wiles of Satan! These things often go undetected by God's people in this present age of darkness.

I know, it is difficult to wrap our mind around a lot of what is happening and being revealed in this present age, and I understand that it might take a little bit of time for a paradigm shift to occur. Often, when truth is revealed to the uninformed, they can, as with Jeremiah, become angry and hostile towards the messengers of truth. This is because it exposes the fear, faithlessness and also threatens their false belief systems that they have come to depend on. God's watchmen however, are messengers of the truth and the bearers of reality, which is truly an expression of love for our Father and His people. It is sad to say ... but in reality the whole world lies in deception and is influenced and controlled by Satan's evil plans and wiles...

(1 John 5:19) "...and the whole world lies in wickedness... And we know that the Son of God is come, and has given us understanding ...

Attacking the messengers, or even killing them, will not change anything, rather we have to change our attitude, swallow our pride and receive the truth humbly from our Father and repent. In this newsletter, I am bringing what many are still ignorant of, or have not taken seriously enough to investigate for themselves. The FACTS are there if one really wants to know the truth.

Erasing Our Ancient History

One warning I want to give is one that some of you are already aware of, but unfortunately most of God's people today are not. That is, Satan has done his best to distort and to erase our ancient history. It has only been in the last ten years that I have been making these discoveries myself. I have found that much of the vital information from ancient history has been hidden from the majority of Christians, much beginning around 100 years after the death of the founding Apostles until now. However, God told Daniel that in the end times "knowledge would increase (Dan 12:4) and this includes vital knowledge concerning lost or distorted ancient history.

Satan and his demonic hoards don't want God's people to know the truth concerning the ancient past, because—as I often say, "those who don't understand the past will not be prepared for what hell has planned for the future." Our ancient history is a vital part of the foundation for last days church and it needs to be restored. Restoring foundations was one of the things God called me to in the very beginning of my ministry, when He gave me the following Scripture in answer to my question as to what my ministry was to involve...

(Isa 58:12) And they that shall be of (or among) you shall build the old waste places: you shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called, The repairer of the breach (or gap), The restorer of paths to dwell in.

The Lord has been filling in many of ancient history's "gaps" for me. A gap according to Google Dictionary, is defined as an unfilled space or interval; a break in continuity. Many of the "gaps" in our knowledge of history have been filled in with lies and absurd theories. Far too many Christians do not realize that the forces of darkness (i.e. known as the Illuminati) are the architects of this world's public education systems. They only brainwash us with what they want us to believe. There has been much distortion and falsifying of this earth's history including the history of nations and their formation. Although the famed author, who quit school at age 12 had more meanings in mind than calling out specific educational untruths, it turns out plenty of the "facts" learned in school are actually myths, propaganda, misinformation, of downright lies.

The Bible however, does give us an accurate account of many past and future events that are relevant to the Scriptures. Much of the “forbidden history” contained in the FREE off for this months DVD entitled “Why Many Books of the Bible Were Removed” by GoRules.net has not been given to God’s people. It is time to remove this veil of secrecy.

The Apocrypha that is translated by Edgar J. Godspeed and Moses Hadas, has an introduction also explaining why there has been an elimination of the Apocryphal writings. Following is a quote from part of that introduction:

“The Apocrypha formed an integral part of the King James Version of 1611, as they had of all the preceding English versions from their beginning in 1382. But they are seldom printed as part of it any longer.” ... this is partly because the Puritans disapproved of them. They had already begun to drop them from printings of their Geneva Bible by 1600, and begun to demand copies of the King James Version omitting them, as early as 1629... But the Apocrypha was part of the Bible of the early church, which used the Greek version of the Jewish Bible, called Septuagint, and these books were all in that version. (Note: Jesus and the Apostles read the Old Testament from the Septuagint). The “Roman Church” translated the Septuagint into Latin and the “Great Latin Bible” was edited by St. Jerome—a Catholic priest—about A.D. 400, and his translation is known as the Vulgate. ...Jerome found that the Apocrypha were not in the Hebrew Bible, and so he called them the “Apocrypha” meaning the “hidden or secret books.”—end quote—

It should be noted that the reason the Hebrew (Septuagint) did not include the Apocrypha books was because they contained many “messianic texts” that Hebrew scholars wanted hidden from the people.

Ancient Texts and Gnosticism

There are many ancient texts that are a valuable resources for historical Biblical information. In the 100 page Watchman Report entitled “The Kabbalah and the Apocrypha...a Look at Forbidden History” ... much information is given concerning many of these ancient texts.

Gnostics who wrote many books containing “hidden knowledge”—including Jewish Gnostics who wrote the Kabbalah, claim to possess an elevated knowledge, a “higher truth” known only to a certain few. Gnosticism comes from the Greek word gnosis which means “to know.” Gnostics claim to possess a higher knowledge, not from the Bible, but acquired from other spiritual source and not from God’s Holy Spirit who is the revealer of all truth. Gnostics see themselves as a privileged class elevated above everybody else because of the knowledge they have obtained.

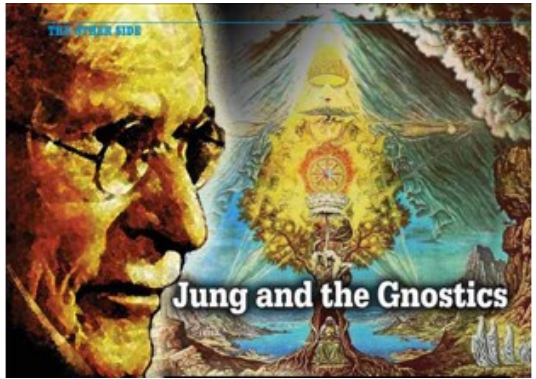

Gnosticism is based on a mystical, intuitive, subjective, inward, emotional approach to truth which is not new at all. It is very old, going back to the Garden of Eden, where Satan questioned God and the words He spoke and convinced

Adam and Eve to reject God's words and accept a lie. He does the same thing today as he "prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8). He still calls God and the Bible into question and catches in his web those who are either naïve and scripturally uninformed or who are seeking some personal agenda or "revelation" to make them feel special, unique, and superior to others. Let us follow the Apostle Paul who said to "test everything. Hold on to the good" (1 Thessalonians 5:21), and this we do by comparing everything to the Word of God, the only foundation for all Truth.

Keep in mind that Gnosticism today has become the foundation for much of our psychology and counseling. In an article "JUNG and the Gnostics" (<https://atlantisrisingmagazine.com/article/jung-and-the-gnostics/>) — the following statement is made:

"Is depth psychology, as it is termed and being practiced today, a modern extension of Gnosticism? Was Carl Jung himself a Gnostic? Analytical psychology, which is based on Jung's understanding of the human psyche, is being used worldwide today as a form of self-inquiry and mental healing. The theoretical foundations of analytical psychology closely mirror some of the core principles of Gnosticism. They share an idea that one can have a direct Gnosis or understanding of the nature of the self and spirit outside of belief (in God). If it hadn't been for Carl Jung's recognition of the fundamentals of Gnosticism, we might not care today what they thought."

Gaining a true understanding of ourselves through study of the Word of God is available to anyone who has God's Holy Spirit within them to teach them the Scriptures (1John 2:20, 27). This is not knowledge far surpasses any psychological studies on earth and it is not just for a "select few intellectuals." A "mystery" in the New Testament is not "esoteric information" — meaning it is not just for a few "enlightened" Christians. Some people claim that the Bible contains esoteric keys that "unlock" hidden knowledge and allows a person to understand what the Bible "really" means (like many popular messianic Gnostic Jewish Bible teachers report).

Biblically, there is no reason to believe in Esotericism or search for esoteric keys. In fact, a major aspect of the gospel is its accessibility to all people, regardless of knowledge or experience: (Matthew 11:25) I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

The Bible says is clear that those things that are hidden belong to God:

(Deuteronomy 29:29) The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this (God's) law. (Parenthesis mine for emphasis).

That which can be known is accessible to all people, who are willing to seek God for the truth and not just a select few: (Matthew 10:26) "...for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known... What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops."

God reveals what is hidden to our human understanding through the power of His Holy Spirit's gifts of grace to all who are willing to receive His gift of salvation from the powers of darkness: (Titus 2:11) "The grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people"—not just to those with special insight into mysterious meanings. "God commands all people everywhere to repent" (Acts 17:30), so the Holy Spirit of truth can fill them and "lead them into all truth, (John 16:13) Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth... so they do not have to look for secret knowledge or obscure interpretations of the Bible. Thus professing Christians who are not continually receiving new understanding and knowledge when reading God's Word, which they did not previously have... it's because they do not have the Holy Spirit dwelling in them for "...he will guide you into all truth."

It is important to understand and believe that archaeology and history, will never contradict Biblical Christian theology. Like any other ancient work, the Bible needs to be carefully considered in historical and language contexts. There are aspects of Scripture that require some advanced knowledge, such as of history for instance or science, in order to more fully understand what God has revealed in the Scriptures.

This, however, is not information hidden or obscured for all but a select, kabalistic few. The Bible is extremely clear about the core of the gospel, and obtaining knowledge on other subjects is not necessary for a faithful, spiritual eternal life. There is no legitimately "secret" knowledge in Scripture.

God Will Teach Us ALL Things!

We do not need any esoteric keys to the Bible in order to truly understand it. When the New Testament talks about "hidden things" or "mysteries" it is referring to something that was in times past hidden but is now revealed to everyone--through the discernment of the Holy Spirit. This is why there are doctrines or teachings in the Bible that only a truly Holy Spirit filled Christian person can understand (discern). The receiving of special knowledge (Gnosticism) in order to have understanding of mysteries, not mentioned in Scripture that are designed for only a select few "enlightened ones"—who have been properly initiated through receiving some secret or hidden knowledge from another spirit (and not the Holy Spirit of God), is a false Esoteric religion.

(1 Corinthians 2:14). The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit” Also, Paul goes on to say, “We have the mind of Christ” (verse 16). One’s level of spiritual understanding (discernment) depends on having the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. It says in (1 Corinthians 2:1–2) We must grow in Christ and it tell us in (2 Peter 3:18) “... grow in grace, and in the knowledge of (i.e. from) our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.” (Parenthesis mine for clarity).

In order to have the “anointing to know all things (1 Jn 2:20), we are warned not to not to “quench” the Holy Spirit, for if we do—we open ourselves up to being seduced by lying spirits: (1 Timothy 4:1)...in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. Jesus’ invitation is broad, not limited to a select few: “Whoever comes to me I will never drive away.” (John 6:37). The Word of God is our guide to knowledge and understanding, not human wisdom or revelation from a demonic spirit: (Psalms 119:104-105) through your precepts (word) I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way...Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

The following information is from an article that can be read on SteveQuayle.com regarding ancient writings that are not well known by most Christians, these include:

◆ The Epic of Gilgamesh

◆ The Dead Sea Scrolls: Book of Giants

It is fair to say that the patriarch Enoch was as well-known to the ancients as he is obscure to modern Bible readers. Besides giving his age (365 years), the book of Genesis says of him only that he “walked with God,” and afterward “he was not, because God had taken him” (Gen 5:24). This exalted way of life and mysterious demise made Enoch into a figure of considerable fascination, and a cycle of legends grew up around him.

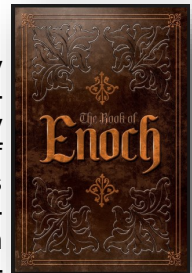

Many of the legends about Enoch were collected already in ancient times in several long anthologies. The most important such anthology, and the oldest, is known simply as The Book of Enoch, comprising over one hundred chapters. It still survives in its entirety (although only in the Ethiopic language) and forms an important source for the thought of Judaism in the last few centuries B.C.E. Significantly, the remnants of several almost copies of The Book of Enoch in Aramaic were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls, and it is clear that whoever collected the scrolls considered it a vitally important text. All but one of the five major components of the Ethiopic anthology have turned up among the scrolls. But even more intriguing is the fact that additional, previously unknown or little-known texts about Enoch were discovered at Qumrah. The most important of these is The Book of Giants.

◆ The Book of Enoch For more information you go to:

<http://www.ccel.org/c/charles/otpseudepig/enoch>

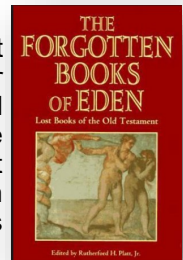

THE BOOK OF EDEN, written during the second century B.C.E. and is one of the most important non-canonical apocryphal works and probably had a huge influence on early Christians, particularly Gnostic, beliefs. Filled with visions of heaven, hell, angels and devils, Enoch introduced concepts such as fallen angels, the appearance of a Messiah, resurrection, a Final Judgment, and a Heavenly Kingdom on Earth. Interspersed with this material are quasi-scientific digressions on calendrical systems, geography, cosmology, astronomy and meteorology.

◆ The Forgotten Books of Eden For more information you go to:

<http://www.sacred-texts.com/bib/fbe/>

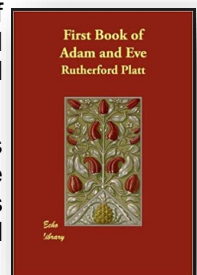

THE FORGOTTEN BOOKS OF EDEN are Old Testament Pseudepigrapha, quasi-Biblical writings, which never achieved canonical status, or inclusion in any of the official Apocrypha). This isn't to say that these documents are false or forgeries, just that for one reason or another they were not considered part of the Biblical text by the first millennium (C.E.) compilers (some as we stated had their own agendas for withholding these books).

◆ The First Book of Adam and Eve

This is the work of unknown Egyptians (Thus, the lack of historical allusion makes it impossible to date the writing). However, parts of this version are found in the Talmud, the Koran and elsewhere, thus showing what role it played in the original literature of humans understanding of ancient History.

As God's people, we are invited or called to become Kings and Priest in God's Holy Nation, thus, we have the "honor" (also be translated "authority") to seek out what has been "hidden" by God's "glory" (also be translated "authority")... He will reveal "secret things" to us...

It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter. (Prov 25:2)

Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret. (Dan 2:47)

Surely the Lord God does nothing, Unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets.(Amos 3:7)

There is another book that I would like to make mention of called the CEPHER, which is mentioned in our FREE DVD offer : Banned from the Bible: Find Out Why They Were Removed." The CEPHER is a work that includes:

- Sets forth a transliteration, rather than a substitution, of the names of the Father (YAHUAH), Son (YAHUSHA) and Holy Spirit (RUACH HAQODESH).
- Transliterates over 3100 other Hebrew names and places.
- Restores the Aleph Tav more than 10,000 times; previously omitted in other English translations.
- Includes all of the 81 books previously canonized as the Bible plus another 6 books considered to be inspired and/or historically significant: Enoch & Jubilees from the Dead Sea Scrolls, as well as Jasher, 4 Ezra, 2 Baruch and Hadacah (Additions to Esther), for a total of 87 books under one cover.
- Restores an accurate order to the books as they were originally written.

Walmart patents biometric shopping cart to track your vitals

Walmart wanting to track your vitals is flat out disturbing

By Shawn Knight on October 11, 2018

Why it matters: Excessive data collection has become a major problem in modern society. Walmart's biometric shopping cart handle patent is the perfect example of a company going too far under the guise of doing something good.

Shopping carts are a utilitarian asset meant to help haul goods you intend to purchase to the checkout lanes. Walmart, it seems, believes carts should be capable of far more.

The big box retailer filed a patent earlier this year for a connected shopping cart with a biometric feedback handle. As per the patent, the cart's handle could measure a shopper's heart rate, temperature, their grip strength on the handle, their oxygen saturation, how long it has been since they last grabbed the cart's handle and even the cart's speed.

Walmart asserts that the system could help the sick or elderly by dispatching an associate to perform a wellness check. Other embodiments describe linking cart data to a smartphone app to track calories burned and other fitness metrics.

It's one thing if you want to track the speed of a cart or its route through a store for marketing purposes but a desire to collect a user's vital signs under the guise that you're doing so to help sick or elderly shoppers or otherwise improve customer service is outright disturbing.

Imagine how easy it would be to build profiles of shoppers based solely on their detailed vital signs. This is creepy on a whole new level. What's next, blood samples and DNA swabs? ↑

Karen Connell

One of the things that I mention time and time again in many of the things I write, to those who have ears to hear—is something God seems to be continually impressing upon me to tell His people, and that is WE MUST NOT ALLOW FEAR TO TAKE HOLD OF OUR MINDS!

Jesus forewarned us that FEAR was going to be a serious problem when describing the events that are to take place on this earth in these endtimes...

...and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of (or from) the heavens will be shaken (Alternate translation: will cause a shaking)... (Luke 21:25-26)

Having just endured Hurricane Michael—one of the worst hurricanes this nation has ever had to deal with, is for sure a fulfillment of the above verse! Like many, I believe this, along with many other destructive weather related disasters, was a geoengineered weather event. However, these weather events along with other demonic beast technology are going to be targeting multitudes of the earth's population, in even greater horrendous and evil ways.

As these horrible endtime events are leashed upon us, we must never forget that FEAR is not just a negative (painful) emotion—for the Bible tells us it is a SPIRIT that targets and controls the minds and hearts of human beings.

(2 Tim 1:7) ...For God has not given us a SPIRIT OF FEAR, but of POWER and of LOVE and of a SOUND MIND...

The Bible says that God is LOVE and when His Spirit (of love) is in our life as an abiding influence it gives us a SOUND mind. If Satan's spirit of fear is the abiding influence over our lives it gives us a mind that is FAR FROM SOUND.

Florida's Panhandle devastation from Hurricane Michael

As the Bible says: God is love... therefore, if we honor (value) His love ...it will release the power we need to rule over the spirit of fear, because God's love will cause the SPIRIT OF FAITH to manifest in our life...

(Gal 5:6)

...but faith WORKS (lit: is activated) by love.

(2 Cor 4:13)

... we have the same SPIRIT OF FAITH...

God's people have always been and will continue to be TARGETED by enemy forces until the day of their final redemption from this earth (either by death or by being raptured). Therefore, we must learn how to overcome THE FEAR OF BEING targeted, so we are not being ruled by a SPIRIT OF FEAR. We must clearly understand that as a born again Christian, a spirit of FAITH and a spirit of FEAR cannot operate in our lives at the same time... we alone are responsible for allowing one or the other to control our mind (thought life). If Fear is in control it robs us of or DEACTIVATES our FAITH—just as God's LOVE ACTIVATES faith. I say this because the word FEAR in (2Tim 1:7) is the Greek word:

NT:1167 dellia (di-lee'-ah); it means cowardice or afraid and is a derivative of NT:1169; meaning FAITHLESS (i.e. literally meaning to not believe, trust or obey... (Jn 14:15) "If you love Me, obey..."). We won't obey, when we don't honor and trust God and His Word and we don't trust because we really are not fully convinced (believe) His Word—through lack of knowledge or doubt.

As stated the SPIRIT OF FEAR gives us a mind that is not SOUND. The word "sound mind" literally means:

SOUND MIND (NT:4995) sophronismos (so-fron-is-mos'); A self-disciplined mind that stays SOBER through CORRECTION and SOUND TEACHING (i.e. CORRECTING every WRONG thought and making it subject to the Word of God) so sound judgment is the result. A sound mind is SOBER... or to be FULLY in control of all thoughts and behavior. You cannot teach or give instructions to a "drunk" ... their comprehension is non-existent.

The Spirit of fear is an intoxicating spirit that is looking for people who have areas of INSECURITY that can be targeted. These areas are vulnerable to accusing lying spirits that open the door to a spirit of fear to invade their mind... causing them to get... ALL SHOOK UP! The Apostle Paul described it this way...

"... be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirits, nor by words, (Lit: communication in the form of speech, including thoughts) nor by letters (lit: written messages)..." (2 Thess 2:2).

All three of these things (i.e. spirits, words and written [false] messages) are being used against God's people to SHAKE them. The word SHAKEN is...

SHAKEN NT:4531 saleuo (sal-yoo'-o) and the CWSD defines it as: causing minds of people to become agitated, disturbed, (anxiety, worry) incensed (i.e. an emotion that is unpleasant or destructive, intimidating), it also means to destroy, another form of the word is NT:4535; salos (sal'-os); CWSD: meaning a vibrational wave referring to "sound" (i.e. targeted people becoming "SHAKEN UP")!?

When we become “shaken” a signal (vibration-wave) goes out into the realm of the spirit signaling or summoning demonic spirits to come and harass us.

Our fearful or negative thoughts are beacons or signals that can summon demons.

In the Threefold Cord Healing and Deliverance Manual, on (Pg. 131) I state the following:

It was a real eye opener to me when I found out that our thoughts send out signals into the realm of the spirit and can actually summon angels or demons! Before I understood this truth, I used to wonder why I had such a struggle with demonic oppression. The negative thoughts I was agreeing with were summoning a spirit of fear. My fearful and negative thoughts were actually signaling and summoning demonic powers—saying, “Here I am boys... come and harass me!” The Lord revealed this truth to me when I bumped into the following verse.

(Isa 10:18) ... both soul and body they shall be as when a standard-bearer FAINTS.

This verse is literally saying our soul (thoughts and emotions) and body (physical flesh) can be used to emit signals! The word standard-bearer is the Hebrew word (Strong’s 5264) nacac (naw-sas’) which refers to a conspicuous signal or beacon.

This word .nacac.. is used in the (Isa 10:18) verse above—in connection with the word faints—which is the Hebrew word (Strong’s 4549) macac (maw-sas’) and is also translated as ...fear, discouragement, worthlessness, fatigue and grief.

Thus, discouraging, worthless are the result of fearful thoughts are a signal for demons to bring pain and weakness to our soul (mind) and body (physical). Again, we are the sum total of our thoughts. Whatever thoughts we allow to lodge within our heart (spirit and soul), will eventually come out of our mouth and determine who and what we will become.

We might as well settle the fact that the battle over the control of our mind is a constant and life-long battle that will be never ending—as long as we live in this mortal body. Demons will always be coming back to see if we allowed their thoughts to given a place or room to lodge within our temple. This will open the door for demonic oppression to increase their influence rapidly—if we do not watch over our thought life.

We need the helmet of Salvation to protect us. That helmet represents our taking on the responsibility for “putting on” or doing and practicing what is necessary to guard our thought life, so we remain protected from Satan’s evil mind control attacks. This helmet is for our “head”—on which we have EARS for HEARING. Thus, the helmet protects our ability to HEAR (i.e. our understanding and discernment). The helmet keeps our mind SOBER and clear so we can use our “shield of faith.” (Rom 10:17) So then FAITH comes by hearing, and hearing (i.e. understanding and discernment) comes by the WORD of God.

When our shield of faith is used it will cause us to fully expect God to be true to His Word and do what He promises in His Word. His Word had EVERY answer that pertains to or "life and godliness."

God Hates Mixture!

So Why are Christians Trying to be Patriotic Christians?

Karen Connell

Rev 18:3

Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins...

My on line Dictionary defines a “patriot” as: A person who vigorously supports and pledges total allegiance to their country and is prepared to defend it against all enemies or detractors.

The Bible declares God’s people are part of His “HOLY NATION”—which by the way does not allow dual citizenship (mixture)! How many “professing Christians” are true patriots for God’s Holy Nation, as defined above? Those who have taken the time to study their Bible know that it clearly reveals the USA to be the nation known as “Mystery Babylon” and we are also clearly commanded to come out of her and not partake of her sins. No where do I find God wanting to Mystery Babylon “great again” ... that is Satan’s agenda!

God will have a Bride unspotted and undefiled. She will not be a mixture of the world and the church. Our Heavenly Father is still possessing those who have been redeemed, called out, and established in His absolute Word. A mixture of “Christianity and politics” is more deadly to a lost soul than the corner bar or local drug house.

The foundation for this nation was laid by founding fathers who rejected the Bible and Jesus Christ in this nations Constitution. The rule of law before the adoption of the Constitution for most of the colonies, came straight from Scripture. The founding fathers, however, thinking “diversity” (e.g. mixture) would be more benevolent than God’s standard, which demands “no mixture”—allowed for the acceptance of any and all religious beliefs in the first amendment. A good example of the consequences for this “lawless” belief is now in our faces, that is the Muslim problem. If we had the first commandment as law, rather than the first amendment, there wouldn’t be a Muslim problem in this country.

3 Things the Constitution represents

Let me provide a short list of reasons why the Constitution and what it represents should be understood by those professing to be loyal citizens of God’s Holy Nation.

1. It defies God’s sovereignty and morality in nearly every article and amendment.

2. It's the reason America is teetering on the precipice (or, actually, already falling into the chasm) of moral depravity and national destruction.

3. Every problem America faces today can be traced back to the fact that the framers failed to expressly establish a government upon God's immutable morality as codified in His commandments, statutes, and judgments.

- Would infanticide and sodomy be tolerated, let alone financed by the government, if God's perfect law and altogether righteous judgments were the law of the land?
- Would Islam be a looming threat to our peace and security if the First Amendment had been replaced with the First Commandment?
- Would Americans be in nearly as much debt if usury had been outlawed as a form of theft?
- Would crime be as rampant if "cruel and unusual punishment" had not been outlawed and criminals were instead punished with God's altogether righteous judgments?

God's people need to be confessing and repenting of the fact that they have honored the Constitution of the United States above God's law and expose it, as the national idol it represents.

The Holy Bible is a book for those on the Holy Nation who are of the "strait and narrow." It is perfect in every part and aspect of its message. The true remnant church is the pure church, which is the also powerful church. Those who are not pure and powerful Christians have produced a counterfeit church by adding mixture, to produce a false gospel by adding one element of the world and its imaginations. When you add the twelve-step programs to your church, you become a social agency, not the Bride of Christ. When psychology enters the door of a church, it becomes religious institution of humanism, instead of a Holy Spirit possessed House of God. When social programs replace prayer meetings, you have a community club instead of a ministry to rescue lost souls.

The apostate church of this generation has lost its power and purity by allowing mixture. This is clearly one of Satan's primary battle strategies. When are Christians going to wake up to fact that we are told in God's Word:

(Rev 18:5-6)

For her (Mystery Babylon i.e. USA) sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities...Render ...and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she has mixed, mix double for her.

2 Tim 2:4

No man that wars entangles himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who has chosen him...

1 Peter 2:9

But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness... 1

Forget Not the Watchman's Warnings

Jeremiah the prophet lived in the final days of his crumbling nation. Like many watchmen ministries today, he repeatedly warned God's people to stop their idolatrous behavior, but they would not listen. They had become so hardened by the numbing effects of sin that they no longer believed God, nor did they fear Him. Jeremiah preached for 40 years and not once did he see any real success in changing or softening the hearts and minds of God's stubborn, idolatrous people before judgment finally came. Like the people in Jeremiah's day many of God's people have heard but have taken lightly the prophetic watchmen's warnings for today. In this Report, Karen reminds us from past reports what the watchmen have warned us of, much of which is now happening and is about to occur! Do you have ears to hear the WATCHMAN'S WARNINGS?
