

October 14, 2020—A WORD FROM (Isaiah 33:13-24) Warnings of Impending Judgments

Hear, you who are far off... who are not close to Me... hear pay attention to My judgments also, you who are near ...who are in close relationship with me, be aware of and diligently consider My instructions.

What is about to happen is by My supernatural power ... The sinners in My church will be in awe and have reason to fear. Trembling will seize the godless ones. Who among us can live with the devouring fire? Who among us can endure the burning of this age? It is only he who lives righteously and speaks what is right and honest, also he who despises what can be gained by oppression, through force or threats. These want nothing to do with possessing the power and ability to take a bribe, corrupt gifts or rewards for what is not right. My righteous ones refuse to pay attention to bloodshed and refuse to look at what is bad, harmful, miserable, distressful, or vicious in disposition.

I your God, make these promises to these kind of persons... they will dwell on high in heavenly places where they will live and move and have a life with the Spirit of their God and not with carnal things. Their security and safety is founded upon their ROCK—Me, Jesus Christ the living word of God. My bread will be supplied, both their spiritual and natural food for survival. Their waters will be sure, for they will have spiritual living water as well as natural water for their survival.

Their King's royal splendor is seen by them through seeing prophetic visions, which will be their source for seeing and learning about their land and the enemies their God is bringing from a distant country. In their heart they will ponder the dread and darkness concerning the terror of My judgment.

Where is the communication of important information ...Concerning the process of calculating the actual weight of money (silver) or food items as payment for what is in the storage structures among their central defense strongholds in the centers of cities? Where is important information be communicated? It will come from those in (government) elevated pulpits who will address the crowds of citizens who have become insolent, hostile and resistant. These who are not able to understand the people of foreign speech, will be caused to listen to and obey those who despise them to their faces, and who ridicule them, strongly attacking and accusing people's positions and words, with slandering language against those who lack the power to discern.

Those with my true prophetic insight and visions are truly My guiding pillar in these dark end times. These are appointed to bring about My appointed times and seasons and to signal and be the source for learning how to be instructed to war through the living water, and to celebrate with praise. This will produce peace and security within the tabernacle of my people. Those in this place will not be moved (disturbed) or taken away to their death or depart from Me, their God. For these will have a share in their Lord's plans, who will bring stability to His people who suffer with perpetual ruin and pain from all cords that have not been broken through the purifying process of sanctification.

But whenever, they are in this place of going through My sanctifying process, My glorious power, will for this purpose, in this place be for purging. It will produce a condition of mind and body that will cause a flowing of My living water to be freely directed through My power and means.

Also, when you see the departing of a fleet of Navy ships, this will become a cause for great lament and mourning. This movement and travel of war and cargo ships is controlled by abusive political and economic oppression, that also controls the great calamity of these ships that are large, powerful and famous. They will truly be overcome and removed.

Indeed, I the Lord am the judge and the source for legislating, governing and executing all authority and judgment, which I alone have decided upon. I the Lord am the commander of My decrees, for I am your King who will deliver my righteous ones from tribulation, and rescue them from certain death and from their enemies. I alone will give victory to them in time of war. I will avenge wrongs, and extend great compassion in time of need for their salvation comes only from Me their God. Therefore, forsake and leave behind and do not permit binding cords to bind and choke out your strength. Be established according to My standard, so that your beacon will not be blocked.

When helping with the distribution of food, divide the people into sections or groups. During times of judgment, you will obtain your share and you will also share with those you partner with, who obtain the spoil and booty that is taken in war by force. I The Lord will shake My hand over the unrepentant people and they will become a spoil to those who force them to serve them.

Have I not said, "Sing and rejoice O daughter of Zion, for behold, I come and will dwell in the midst of you!" Abundance and increase will cause dancing and rejoicing because of the plunder and spoil of your booty. It will hardly be said by those who reside with you, "I am wounded, worn out, weak and sick," because the people that dwell with you, will be those who are willing to receive pardon from their iniquities.
