I say to you My remnant Bride... according to the prophetic words that were given to you previously... go to war with these prophetic words that I have given, for with these, I want you to wage war and to raise up and lead other warriors into doing the same. Your fight is not with carnal flesh and blood, but with the wicked forces in the heavenlies. They are coming forth with a vengeance in the days ahead, for their master knows his time is short. Do not fear, My precious Saints, for greater is He that is in you than any in this world!

Those who believe what My Spirit is presently teaching them from My Word, will receive it by faith because it bears witness with my Word within their spirit. There are those, however, who push my teaching away and rejected it, for it requires laying aside their own personal agendas and the teachings and traditions of men. Because of this their faith is experiencing difficulties because of doubts and confusion and will fail them when it is most needed.

Therefore, I am encouraging and summoning My Warrior Remnant to have as their first priority that of banding together with those of like mind and like faith and become committed to bring forth their petitions, for all people, through their warfare prayers and thanksgiving as worshipful service unto Me. Through this My warring host in heaven will be released to join in their battles.

I am appointing my warring intercessors to confer with Me and get My mind and perspective on how to deal with what they are facing. It is through their intercession, that they will know if I am either for or against whatever events or circumstances are taking place, for the revelation of My prophetic words of correction, instruction and direction will be their guide. As they intercede and seek My face, I will reveal the secret and hidden things, for there are intentionally hidden circumstances that many of My people are not aware of and these things need to be made known and brought into the light, when they are found to be happening.

There are hidden plans and agendas concerning the leaders of the people, and all that are in authority at this time. Many will be deceived into following the Man of Sin, who is soon to be revealed. His plans have already been laid long ago and many are now going operational at this time. Because the spirit of fear is the keeper of the gates of hell, the minds of multitudes have been overtaken and are being controlled by the hordes of demons coming through the portals of hell.

Those who fear and follow My Spirit will keep their minds protected by staying fixed upon Me and not on the things of this world. When my words of truth exist and are revealed within My chosen ones... they will have tranquility and an undisturbed manner of life, that will lead them and furnish them with what I honor and approve of and with what is good and acceptable in the sight of their Savior and God.

I say therefore, this is the time to intercede and pray for all the people who take delight and pleasure in choosing to be -- made whole and mature... pray for them that they will enter into the knowledge of the truth and pray also that the truth will come into their being and find a place of honor and influence within them. However, those who choose to continue to dishonor Me and My Word by choosing to walk in their own will and ways, have chosen to be turned over to Satan, their cruel taskmaster and tormentor of mankind, only then will they will learn to fear and honor Me, says Your God.
